In fine, the fourteen Southern States thus ennreturned to Spring Term, 1867 of the Superior merated, would loose 25 votes, or one-third of Courts, and should the tenth, fifth and half of the their representation in Congress by the Census of judgments be paid from Spring Term to Spring 1860. The only consolatory reflection appropriate at this time would seem to be that two-thirds of a representation is, of course, better than none, and that the defliciency, if found to be a positive evil, SEC. 14. TURPENTINE-Since our last review there has been a fair enquiry for this article for both shipping and distilling purposes, and parcels have readily found sale on arrival at quotations given below. On Tuesday there was a shade advance on previous figure, and sales were effected at $4 05 for virgin, $3 05 for yellow dip, and $1 52} for hard, $ bbl. of 280 lbs.—the market closing steady. The transactions for the week just ended are as follows :

Rosin .- We have no change for the better to report in this article during the past week. The demand has been Northern markets has caused the market here to rule exceedingly dull for all grades, and for the finer qualities prices are somewhat lower than quoted in our last. We quote sales of only 605 bbls. at $3 @ $4 for opaque, $4 75 @ $6 25 for No. 1, and $6 25 @ $7 for Pale—latter price dull. Naval stores quiet. Petroleum dull. Freights for extra—the market closing dull and inactive, and no buyers even at lower figures. We also report sales of 93 bbls. inferior No. 1 at $3 50 @ $3 75; 40 do. mixed grades at $3 25 @ $6; 86 do. No. 2 at $2 50 @ $2 75; and 431 do. Common at $1,90, $2, $2 10 @ $2 25 % bbl.—latter price for

TAR—Is in moderate enquiry, and none of consequence received for some time past. Only 46 bbls. received for the week and sold at $1 55 % bbl.

BEEF CATTLE AND SHEEP .- Very few beeves are now being brought in, and in consequence the stock remaining in butchers' hands is barely sufficient to supply present wants. There is a moderate demand, and a good article would find ready sale. We quote grass fatted on the hoof at 8 to 12 cents & lb. for net meat, as in quality. Sheep are in pretty fair supply, and rather dull of sale at $2 to $3

BARRELS.—The market continues to be moderately su $4 50 each for New York make, as in quantity and quali-

BEESWAY .- Is in moderate enquiry, and sells at 32@33 cents # 16. Corron.-The market for this article rules about the same as reported in our last review. There has been some a few small lots at 33@35 cents for middling-last sale being at highest figure. There is very little now coming to market, and only a few scattering lots remain unsold in first hands. At the time of closing our enquiries the market rules steady, and 35 cents for middling (tax paid)

CORN MEAL.—Supply light, and demand moderate. We quote from the granaries at $1 60@$1 65 @ bushel. Ecos-Sell readily at 25@30 cents # dozen. FLOUR .- The market is rather better supplied with Northern brands than reported in our last, several parcels having been received during the week, and we notice only a retail enquiry. We quote from store at $8 50 to $9 for fine, and $9 50 to $10 50 for superfine, and $12 to $16

bbl. for family, according to quality, (Wilmington in-FERTILIZERS.—The market is moderately supplied with nearly all descriptions, and only a light demand exists.— We quote from store as follows: Peruvian Guano, $112 50; Pacific do., $85; Kettlewell's Manipulated do., $90; E. F. Coe's Superphosphate of Lime, $65; Ober's Cotton and Corn Compound, $69; and Baugh's Raw Bone Phosphate,

GRAIN.-For CORN the market has continued to rule firm since our last review, and prices have further advanced a shade during the week. There is a better supply now on market-the arrivals comprising some 20,000 bushelswhile the demand is not so brisk and is principally for small parcels. Of the above arrivals we quote sales of several parcels from wharf at $1 35@$1 45, as in quality; the bulk however, has gone into store, and is selling in lots at $1 35 @$1 40 for yellow, and $1 50 @ bushel for white. OATS,-The receipts have been light for some weeks past, and the stock in dealers' hands at present is rather small. We quote from store in lots at 80@85 cents # bushel. PEAS.-No receipts, and former arrivals have all been worked off. The market is at present entirely bare of quantity-Rice.-Clean is in very light stock, but we report merely a retail demand. We quote Carolina at 14 HAY .- The market continues to be overstocked with sold from wharf at 90 cents @ $1 $9 100 ths No Eastern on market, and quotations in table are therefore nominal. LIME .- No receipts for some time past, and the supply of former arrivals have become nearly worked off; a cargo, however, is now daily looked for. We quote in the small way from store at $2 25@$2 50 @ cask.

only a small business doing. See table for store quotations, as in quantity and quality. POTATOES—Irish are brought to market pretty freely and sell from carts at $1 50@$1 60 @ bushel. PEA NUTS—Are in moderate request, and scarcely any coming to market. A lot of 260 bushels prime quality was received and sold a few days since at $2.75 $\mathbb{P}$ bushel,

Molasses.—The market is rather firmer, and prices

POULTRY-Has been brought to market rather more freely during the past week, but prices continue to rule high. We quote live chickens at 30 to 50 cents, and grown fowls at 621/075 cents each, according to size.

Provisions—In the market for N. C. cured Bacon we have no change of importance to report in prices since our last. There has been a moderate demand throughout the week, and several lots have changed hands at 18@19 cents for hog round, 19 cents for sides, and 19@20 cents 18 lb. for hams—the market closing at latter figures, though some holders are asking higher rates. The stock on market is fully adequate to supply present demand.— The market is moderately supplied with Western, and there is only a light demand. We quote sales from store at 16@17 cents for shoulders, and 181@19 cents $\mathbb{B}$ b. for sides, as in quality. LARD In the absence of receipts the supply has been worked off. The market is entirely bare of North Carolina, and we notice an active demand We quote at 20@21 cents with .- Pour The market for Northern rules quite firm, and prices remain about the same as reported in our last. We refer to our table

SALT-The supply has become considerably reduced in the absence of receipts, and is rather small at present; it , however, fully sufficient to supply the demand. We quote from store at $2 25@$2 50 $ sack for Liverpool ground, and 50@60 cents # bushel for Alum. SHINGLES-Continue very dull of sale at low prices. We quote Common at $1 75@$2 25, and Contract at $4 to $5 for store quotations.

TIMBER.—There is a moderate enquiry for good quality for milling purposes, and former rates are readily obtained, while inferior is dull of sale. Only a few rafts received and sold for the week, and we refer to our table for classified figures.

Wood.—But little coming in, and we quote by the boat load at $2 25 @ $3 for pine, $2 25 @ $2 75 for ash, and $3

@ $3 25 % cord for oak. FREIGHTS.—We have no change to report in rates to coastwise ports. See table for last prices paid both by steamers and sailing vessels.
